

Society for Marketing Advances

Proceedings of the 2003 Society for Marketing Advances Annual Symposium on Retail Patronage and Strategy

Edited by:

Barry J. Babin, USM

Jean-Charles Chebat, HEC, Montreal

November 4-5, 2003

Contents:

Consumer Shopping Environments: An Approach-Avoidance Perspective Using Personality and Personal Values	4
Margo Poole, The University of Newcastle Aron O’Cass, The University of Newcastle
Toward a new supermarket layout: from industrial categories to one stop shopping organization through a data mining approach.	28
Adilson Borges, Reims Management School
Experience-Brand ‘Fit’: A Contingent Model	41
Michael Beverland, Monash University Michael Morrison, Monash University
Waaoh, or Woe?: Prospects for French hypermarkets and the hypermarket format in Russia	65
Graham H. Roberts, Lille Graduate School of Management
The Effects of Controlled and Uncontrolled Communications on Feelings and Attitudes Towards Service Brands.....	79
Debra Grace, Griffith University Aron O’Cass, The University of Newcastle
Consumers’ Decision-Making Process and Their Online Shopping Behavior: A Clickstream Analysis	106
Sylvan Senecal, University of Toledo Pawel J. Kalczynski, University of Toledo Jacques Nantel, University of Montréal
Small and Medium-Sized British Retailers' Sources of Competitive Advantage in International Markets	133
Karise C. Hutchinson, University of Ulster Barry Quinn, University of Ulster Nicholas Alexander, University of Ulster
Lost in a mall: The Effects of Gender, Familiarity with the Shopping Mall and the Shopping Values on Shoppers’ Wayfinding Processes	195
Jean-Charles Chebat, HEC Montréal Claire Gélinas-Chebat, UQAM Karina Therrien, HEC Montréal
Antecedents and Consequences of Task Completion on Retailing Websites : An Empirical Study.....	220

Jacques Nantel, HEC Montréal
Maria Kratcholova, HEC Montréal

Profits with an Ambiance: Creating Business Enterprise Value with Mall
Atmospherics..... 249
Richard Michon, Ryerson University